McFee to highlight its construction services at QME

McFee, a leading provider of engineering, construction, maintenance and industrial services to the resources, energy and infrastructure sectors, will showcase its expertise alongside local sister company Decmil Queensland, on Stand 2033 during the 2008 Queensland Mining and Engineering (QME) exhibition at the Mackay Showground from July 22-24.

The company, founded in 1963, will be exhibiting on the Mining and Energy Services Council of Australia (MESCA) pavilion at QME.

McFee's aim is to provide a total solution for its clients' needs in areas such as:

- structural fabrication and erection
- mechanical installation
- pipe spooling and installation
- electrical services
- plant commissioning and testing
- maintenance operations and shutdown work.

Accordingly, the company provides on-site management and supervised trades personnel; planning, scheduling, quality assurance and cost control services; and plant and equipment.

Recent clients include:

- BBI Dalrymple Bay Coal Terminal 7X Expansion, Queensland
- Rio Tinto Ranger Uranium Mine, Northern Territory
- Alcan Gove G3 Expansion, Northern Territory
- Bendigo Gold Treatment Plant, Victoria
- Caltex Clean Fuels Project, New South Wales
- Rio Tinto Paraburdoo sustaining works, Western Australia
- BMA Blackwater Coal Facility, Queensland
- MAN/Takraf Port Crane Assembly, New South Wales
- GRD Global Renewables Waste Facility, New South Wales

As a wholly owned subsidiary of Paladio Group Ltd since 2005, McFee also has access to the resources and capabilities of other members of the group, including locally based Decmil Queensland.

Decmil Queensland is a leading construction, engineering and maintenance service provider catering predominantly to the resource sector in such areas as accommodation villages, non-process infrastructure, civil and commercial building works, and engineering and maintenance contract works.
