Sunlec to show advanced thermal printer at QME

Sunlec International will demonstrate what it describes as “the ultimate thermal printer” on GRAFOPLAST Stand 1122 during the 2008 Queensland Mining and Engineering (QME) exhibition at the Mackay Showground from July 22-24.

The Grafoplast S12K thermal printer offers fail-proof loading and usage and high-quality results. It is low maintenance and cost efficient.

The printer can produce up to 5000 tags per hour.

The printer's technology and the use of special ribbons allow total flexibility, printing customised tags, plates and adhesive labels on a diverse range of materials including PVC, polyester, ABS and polycarbonate.
