

DRAFT MEDIA RELEASE

Safety Mate demonstrates innovative new industrial gloves at QME

Safety Mate will exhibit two innovative industrial gloves on Stand 6333 during the 2008 Queensland Mining and Engineering (QME) exhibition at the Mackay Showground from July 22-24.

The MaxiGard 5 Foam cut-resistant glove and MaxiFlex industrial work glove are designed to provide superior hand protection through innovation, technology and design.

“They also offer incredible dexterity and comfort levels,” Safety Mate’s Rick van der Vegte said.

Both patented models comply with Australian standards and are sanitised, Actifresh treated and available in an extensive range of sizes.

The MaxiFlex industrial work glove is breathable and offers:

- Super light coating for great dexterity while offering very high abrasion resistance
- Ideal for a range of multipurpose applications

The MaxiGard 5 Foam cut-resistant glove:

- exceeds cut level 5 requirements by six times
- Patented Foamtech coating for optimum dexterity and grip
- has a breathable coating to keep hands cool and dry.

Safety Mate is the exclusive Australian distributor of the John Ward range of gloves.
