I Like It Direct selling Super Wrench at QME

I Like It Direct will be direct selling its Super Wrench on Stand 1110 during the 2008 Queensland Mining and Engineering (QME) exhibition at the Mackay Showground from July 22-24.

The Super Wrench is a versatile multi-purpose hand tool, which fits multiple sizes and is self-adjusting.

A simple ratchet action locks it onto nuts, bolts pipes, rounded off and damaged. The wrench can then be moved back and forth in a ratchet-style operation allowing the head to be turned without removing the tool from the work.

According to the company this design minimises damage to the hex heads or pipes and ensures gripping power is obtained with lesser handle force, while allowing it to fit and turn a multitude of different shapes and size of nuts, bolts, and pipes. It self adjusts from 2 mm to 70 mm.

The wrenches come in a set of four or five and have a lifetime guarantee. The set of four comes with a free toolbox.

I Like It Direct is a Melbourne-based tool distributor with more than 10 years' experience, selling online or through demonstrations at trade exhibitions, field days and specialist expos.
