OBM International Trade Services to get down to business at QME

OBM will offer some sound business advice on international trade and government grant matters on Stand 2033 during the 2008 Queensland Mining and Engineering (QME) exhibition at the Mackay Showground from July 22-24.

OBM is an Australian-owned professional services firm specialising in consulting, supply chain and customs matters. OBM offers advice to their clients with regards to:

- research and development tax concessions
- government incentive schemes, including export marketing development grants and trade barrier reports for export markets
- supply chain management, including import and export freight forwarding
- customs brokerage services
- minimising customs duties for imports through the tariff concession and enhanced project by law schemes.

OBM employs 85 people in their offices in Brisbane, Sydney, Melbourne, Hong Kong and Shanghai, complemented by a global network of partners.
