National Access to showcase range of access products at QME

National Access will promote a wide range of access equipment products on Stand 9208 during the 2008 Queensland Mining and Engineering (QME) exhibition at the Mackay Showground from July 22-24.

Access equipment brands available from the company include Nifty, MEC, Bravi, Millsom, Hinowa and Bil-Jax.

“Our staff have years of experience in the access equipment industry and are familiar with all the best brand names in elevated work platforms,” National Access’s Peter Mepstead said.

“This guarantees professional service and ensures clients get the right machine to suit their needs.”

National Access, which sells and services Australia-wide, has offices in Darra, Queensland and Perth, Western Australia.

Its staff will be at QME to provide information about its product range and obligation-free quotations.
